BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

BARSTOW'S RESIGNATION.

We publish, to-day, Mr. Barstow's Resignation Message to the Legislature, and unhesitatingly pronounce it an insulting and impudent document, though its tone is much less belligerent, than his previous message, defying the Supreme Court. He has become very patriotic all at once, and is willing to be victimized—to be sacrificed—in fact, to be martyred, to avert civil war, and save the State from chaos, strife and bloodshed. His complaints against the Supreme Court for hearing ex parte evidence, comes with a peculiarly ill grace, when it is known that he would have been permitted to offer all the rebutting testimony he could have produced, had he not absolutely forfeited his right to do so by withdrawing from the case and threatening resistance to the decision of the Court. His political career in this State is finished, and his assertion, that when the present excitement subsides, the people will sustain him, and that future history will vindicate his action, cannot but excite a smile of derision among those conversant with his official conduct in Wisconsin. But enough! He has retired to the shades of private life, and we should mention him "more in sorrow than in anger."

The Forgeries of the Late Canvass.

As it is now proved beyond question, that frauds and forgeries, of the grossest character, were perpetrated at the late canvass, it is the duty of the authorities of the State to examine the matter and ascertain, if possible, who perpetrated them. Forgery to defeat the will of the people, is a grave offence, and should not be passed over lightly; and whoever is guilty of this crime, should receive a full measure of punishment. The forged supplements were manufactured by tools of the last administration, and we do not believe it would be a difficult matter to ascertain upon whom the guilt rests. A term in the penitentiary might improve their morals very materially, and would be a warning to others. Twenty-five thousand dollars expended in bringing the guilty ones to punishment, would be a profitable investment, and might be the means of preventing the bottom of the Treasury from again falling out.

The Gubernatorial Case.

This case, which has been the all absorbing topic of conversation for the past two months, is about drawing to a close. The testimony was concluded yesterday afternoon, and Mr Ryan summed up for the Relator, in a clear and able argument, when the Court adjourned till A. M. to-day. Geo. B. Smith made his appearance in Court, again in the afternoon, and endeavored to argue the case for the State Canvassers: but we do not learn as the venerable Attorney General, who has the public weal so much at heart, again attempted to intrude, after he entered his earnest protest against judgement for the Relator, without a full investigation of the returns of every county in the State. He would only be satisfied with a complete overhauling of the election.

The annexed was telegraphed to the American last evening:

The following is the summing up of the testimony of counsel on the part of Bashford.—Votes for Bashford not counted, in La Crosse Co. 48; Oconto Co. 10; Outagamie Co. 60; Waupaca Co. 127; town of Waupaca 160: total 405.

Deduct from Barstow's official vote, Adams Co. 2; Chippewa Co. 73; Douglas Co. 90; Dunn Co. 82; Green Co. 34; Manitowoc Co. 37; Monroe Co. 112; Polk Co. 74; Sheboygan Co. 17; township 25 range 10 in Waupaca 76; town of Waupaca 225; total 661; making a grand total of 1,116 votes to be added to Bashford. From this deduct 157, Barstow's assumed majority, and the result is 1,009 majority proven for Bashford.

Another Governor.

The telegraph brings news that Mr. McArthur has announced to the Assembly, that, as Barstow has resigned the Governorship, that office devolves upon him, and that he shall "exercise it to the utmost of his power." He will hold the office until the Supreme Court decides that Bashford is entitled to it, and no longer.

DETROIT AND MILWAUKEE RAILWAY.—The Detroit Advertiser of Wednesday last contains the following gratifying intelligence, in regrad to the D. & M. Railway:

Letters received in this city yesterday, which arrived by the Arabia, make it quite certain that one million dollars of the Bonds of the Detroit & Milwaukee Railroad have been negotiated in England, for the construction of the road west of Owasso. This opportune reinforcement will enable Mr. Stewart to complete his contract, and finish the road from Owasso to Grand Haven.

The Cincinnati National Democratic Convention.

The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, (Gen. Jas. Watson Webb,) says that there will be three prominent candidates for the Presidency before the Convention—Pierce, Buchanan, and Mr. Douglas. He says they will go into Convention with about the following strength:

For Pierce—New England 41; New York 35; North and South Carolina 18; Georgia 10; Alabama 9; Florida 3; Texas 4; Mississippi 9; Arkansas 4; Maryland 8; Total 141.

For Buchanan—New Jersey 7; Pennsylvania 27; Delaware 3; Virginia 15; Louisana 6; Kentucky 12; Total 70.

For Douglas—Ohio 23; Iowa 4; Michigan 6; Wisconsin 5; Illinois 12; Indiana 12; Tennessee 12; Missouri 9; California 4; Total 87½

This is doubtless a very safe calculation—fully one-half of the States named, have already declared for the respective candidates to whom they are set down above. It will require 150 votes to secure a nomination; Pierce will perhaps come within twenty, at most, on the first ballot.—Chicago Tribune.

☞ The Know-Nothings of Cincinnati have nominated an independent city ticket.

BARSTOW RESIGNED!

Right, Justice, and THE PEOPLE have triumphed over Anarchy, Despotism, and Usurpation!!

GLORY! HALLELUJAH!!

A MESSAGE has just been received and read, from Wm. A Barstow, in which he resigns the office of Executive, which he has held so long through fraud. He takes the ground that the Court have usurped jurisdiction. That he is a poor victim. That civil war threatens the peace and prosperity of our State. That he is willing to sacrifice himself for the good of the public, and therefore tenders his resignation to the Legislature.

Mr. Barber offered a resolution accepting the resignation, but before any action was taken, the Senate adjourned till 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The communication was read in the Assembly, and referred to a committee. I have not a moment to write, as the mail is just closing, and will only say, thank God that Right has conquered, and that a tyrannical usurper has quailed before the majority of PUBLIC OPINION.

C. V.

MADISON, March 21.

At the opening of the Court, this morning, Mr. Jones was called to the stand, and asked by Mr. Ryan if there was any other paper published in Waupaca besides the Spirit.

Mr. Jones replied that there was not.

Mr. Ryan said that he had a two-fold object in presenting the paper: 1st, to show the date—Nov. 27th—and, 2d, to show that up to that time nothing had been heard of a poll in Town 25, Range 10, although it was published eight days after the election had been held, and gave all the returns that had been received from the County.

Mr. Ryan—Do you remember. Mr. Jones, having seen other returns in any subsequent number of the Waupaca Spirit?

A.—I do not.

Some other questions passed between counsel and witness.

Mr Bovee was called to the stand, and asked if he had endeavored to see the vote as returned at Waupaca, when he was at that place.

Counsel—Did you ask to see returns from Town 25, Range 10?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Did you ask to see the returns of the vote of Waupaca?

A.—I did. Was first refused. Called attention of the Clerk to the Statutes, when he said he would show them. Went to his desk, and after fumbling around for some time, said he could not show the returns because he had lent them to his brother, who had gone into the country.

Mr. Woodward was sworn as a witness, and testified that he was a resident of Waupaca in November. That he was present at the time of election, and thought 521 ballots had been polled. Vote kept by tallys. He counted tallys once, and Bashford had some 78 votes; Barstow being some 20 ahead, between 10 and 11 o'clock A. M. Bashford's tallys kept increasing about as fast as Barstow's. Was up all night—was present when all the votes were canvassed. Judson and Chandler were figuring. Was not present when the result of the vote was declared. The canvassers got through canvassing after breakfast. Lived in Waupaca 2 years. Thought the population, at that time, between 800 and 1,000. Knew that there were 521 votes polled, because Jones' vote was the 520th, and but one man voted after him. Knew of no settlement in Town 25, Range 10, until the vote came in!

Dr. Davis was sworn, and testified that he resided at Portage City. Not acquainted in Waupaca County. Knew John A. Chandler; could distinguish his hand-writing because he had been his pupil, and had often seen him write. Thought the returns from Waupaca County were in Mr. Chandler's hand-writing.

The Court propounded other queries to Mr. Davis, eliciting, however, no further evidence.

Mr. Woodward was re-called, and testified that he had seen Chandler keeping tally. Recollected that Messrs. Bostedo and Brunquest were running for Assembly. Observed a large O opposite Bostedo's name.

Charles F. Wakeley sworn, and testified that he went into the vicinities of Bridge Creek, Spring Creek, and Gilbert's Mills, about Christmas. Inquired relative to a settlement at Bridge Creek, of every person he saw, and learned that there were from one to five persons living in the county at the time of election.—Mr. Wakeley gave an account of the route he had taken on his trip, and the character of the county. No appearance of any settlement.

The Court inquired of counsel if there was no statute regulating precincts.

Mr. Ryan said there was none. That they intended proving that the entire country where polls were said to have been held, was a bleak wilderness, and that consequently there could have been no votes cast, unless the wolves were authorized to exercise the elective franchise.

Mr. Wakeley further testified that he met the Clerk of Chippewa County. That he learned from him there were but two established precincts in the country—one at Chippewa Falls, and the other at Eau Clair. Tried to find place called Spring Creek, but was unable to hear anything concerning such a settlement. Went from Menomonee to Gilbert's Mills, on the same stream. Inquired concerning the election said to have been held there. Was informed by Mr. Gilbert and others, that there had been no election at that place.

(Judge Howe stated that this evidence was only corroborative of the Respondent's confession.)

Mr. Wakeley gave a description of Gilbert's Mills—the settlement consisting of one mill and two or three houses. The country was heavily timbered; saw seven or eight men, and two or three shanties, on the route from Menomonee Mills to Gilbert's Mills. Mr. Wickley stated further that he was informed by Mr. Gilbert that the reason that he (Mr. Gilbert) had not opened a poll at his mills, was because he learned that his men were not going to vote as he desired.

Mr. Bostedo was next sworn, and testified that he resided at Weyauwega; was present when the canvass was made at Mukwa. Lyon, Caledonia, New Lebanon, Royalton and Mukwa made returns to Mukwa. These towns are not returned in the returns from Waupaca. The Board of Canvassers have occasionally met at Mukwa and transacted business.

Dr. Cameron was next sworn. Represents, in Assembly, LaCrosse, Monroe, Trempeleau, Clark, Buffalo, Jackson, Chippewa and Dunn; knew of two organized voting precincts in Chippewa County, viz: Chippewa Falls and Eau Clair. Heard of no such place as Bridge Creek, until the official canvass. Never heard of any vote being taken at Gilbert's Mills, for himself or anybody else. Knew of three organized voting precincts in Dunn County—Menomonee, EauGalla Mills, and North Pepin.—Knew of no such voting precinct as Gilbert's Mills; never visited it. Was not present when the votes were canvassed at LaCrosse Court examined witness, but no new testimony was elicited.

Mr. Ryan offered the affidavits of the following gentlemen:

Wm. D. Fleming, of Amherst.

H. H. Rice, of Waupaca.

J. Micklejohn, of Waupaca.

Their testimony was corroborative of the facts before stated.

Messrs. Dean, Rublee and Reynolds, testified further to some rather unimportant facts, which closed the testimony, and the Court took a recess.

LEGISLATURE.

The Dodge County Division Bill has passed both Houses, and only lacks the Governor's signature to become a law. It will be remembered that day before yesterday it was referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. Rose and Barnes, who reported the same back, yesterday, with an amendment, with which they also submitted the following:

Your committee in the same connection would beg leave humbly to submit that they believe they have given all due consideration to the respective interests to be affected by the division and annexation contemplated, and express their firm and solemn conviction that the true interest of nearly all localities, communities and individuals to be affected thereby, will be greatly increased by the passage of the bill under consideration, and we express, without the slightest hesitation or reserve, our firm belief that a large majority of the people of Jefferson and Dodge Counties, will fully endorse and approve the action recommended by your committee.

On motion, the rules were suspended, and the bill, as amended, passed by almost a unanimous vote. It was put through the Assembly a few minutes later, and thus became a law.—So be it.

Fred Horn's appropriation bill also passed the Senate, yesterday, as amended in the Assembly, and so "Fred" will get his $800 in the "due course of time," unless Barstow vetoes the bill, which is not, what one might say, at all probable.

An Assembly bill, giving doctors and surgeons the right to the bodies of those persons who die friendless and penniless, came up yesterday in the Senate, and was referred to a select committee of three (all M. D's but one). I can see nothing objectionable in the bill, altho' it sounds a little harsh, and I believe the science Anatomy and Physiology demands a law of this character, which will let doctors secure "subjects" in a legal manner, and not compel them to "steal" as they now do.

A resolution was introduced into the Assembly, yesterday afternoon, censuring the Court for subpœning members of the Legislature as witnesses, but scarcely a "baker's dozen" were found to sustain the resolution.

In the Senate, this morning, the resolutions authorizing the purchase of 3,000 copies of the report of the gubernatorial contest, was passed.

The Assembly spent all the morning in committee of the whole on the general file, until Barstow's communication came in. C. V.

FRIDAY EVENING.

Mr. Ryan summed up the evidence this afternoon, in a masterly manner, making an able and eloquent speech, and left the case in a most satisfactorily light

I do not think the Court will render their decision before Monday.

Arthur McArthur took the oath of Governor, to day, and entered the Executive Chamber in place of Mr. Barstow, who left the city this noon. This will not interfere in the least, with the course of Justice, and if the court decide, that Mr. Bashford is the legal Governor it follows, of course, that whosoever occupies the office is an intruder and usurper. It is my opinion that Mr. McArthur has too much good sense to make any attempt at resisting the judgement of the Supreme Court, or interfering with Mr. Bashford's occupancy of the Executive Chamber, provided a judgement of the court is rendered in favor of Bashford. If he (McArthur) acts otherwise, and attempts to create further trouble and delay, and to try and keep Mr. Bashford out of his rights, it will entail everlasting shame and disgrace upon his head. Time alone can tell what Mr. McArthur proposes doing.

9 O'CLOCK P. M.

The Democrats held a Caucus in the Executive Chamber, this evening, which was pretty generally attended. Resolutions were passed announcing a determination to support Mr. McArthur as Governor, but when it is remembered that similar resolutions in connection with Barstow, the whole thing appears like a perfect farce—as it is.

Everybody is rejoicing at the departure of Mr. Barstow from the office he has occupied so long in defiance of law and right. He carries with him anything but the blessings of the people of the State. May his retirement to private life never be disturbed.

An eventful day has this been in the history of our State. A great one for principle. The evening is bright and beautiful, and Nature seems rejoicing over the downfall of an Usurper.

I will spend Sunday in Milwaukee, so as to give all who desire an opportunity of seeing

CHAMP.

ATCHISON FOR V. P.—The Jersey City Telegraph—a Buchanan paper—goes for David R. Atchison, ("Border Ruffian,") for Vice President. The editor is quite jubilant over the thought. He says:

"As Senator from Missouri, and President of the United States Senate, he (Atchison) won golden opinions from all sorts of men. Let Atchison by all means, be placed on the ticket with old Buck, and then we will hear the howls, the threats, and shrieks from the ranks of nigger dom. We will then hear more from the Boeotechian about Sharpe's Rifles, and all that sort of thing."

"FAREWELL" MESSAGE OF BARSTOW.

STATE OF WISCONSIN,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, March 21, 1856.

To the Legislature:

The Supreme Court having assumed jurisdiction in the case of the State on the relation of Celes Bashford against myself, and decided that they have the Constitutional right to determine who shall exercise the powers of the Executive Department of this State, I have deemed it proper to communicate to the Legislature what I understood have been the proceedings of the Court since making my official protest against their jurisdiction, on the 8th inst., and also what course I have determined to pursue, after full and mature deliberation in relation to the same.

Having held jurisdiction in the case in defiance of the most manifest constitutional reasons against it, and asserted a power, which, if carried into execution, necessarily brings into dangerous conflict the coordinate departments of the Government and constitutes that tribunal the absolute and exclusive political power of the State, it was to be expected that proceedings so outrageous in their inception should progress to the end, in violation of every principle of law and judicial usage.

On the 18th inst., the Attorney General, as he had the full right and power to do, and believing the Court have no jurisdiction in the case, entered a discontinuance of the suit.—The Court have decided that he had no right to dismiss the Information, and still hold the case in spite of the Attorney General. Whereupon that officer, in the name and on behalf of the people of the State, demanded that if the Court will still proceed with the case, they shall make a full investigation of the returns of the popular vote for Governor, and proposed to make an issue upon which the right of Mr. Bashford to the Executive Department might be fairly and fully tried and determined. This is also the Court has refused and have ruled that although the determination of the Board of Canvassers is prima facie evidence of my right to that department; yet that the counsel of Mr Bashford might present to the Court or rather the Judges without even the intervention of a jury, ex parte evidence to impeach the State Canvass. Accordingly, the Court is now engaged in hearing ex parte affidavits and evidence from the political friends of the Relator, without notice to any other person or persons interested, and without cross-examination, and presuming to pass upon the grave questions of forgery, perjury and frauds in the election returns, upon such evidence and upon a bare inspection of papers, without a jury, and in the absence and without the knowledge of the parties implicated by such a criminal investigation.

On such testimony taken in violation of law, from witnesses prejudiced in favor of the Relator and in this unheard of and extra judicial method of procedure, in violation of the constitutional right of trial by jury, the Court are about to enter a judgment in favor of the Relator. Such a judgement is now, and in my opinion has been, from the time of its commencement of this proceeding a foregone conclusion with the Court.

When such a judgment is fully entered the Executive and Judiciary Departments will be in open, direct and dangerous conflict! I can see no other method or means of its final settlement except in the exercise of the respective powers, or in the exertion of the legitimate force of these Departments. Such a trial and such an issue are to be regretted by every citizen of the State, as the most dangerous and destructive contingency that could possibly happen in a Republican Government.

To avoid such a contest so destructive to the peace, character and welfare of the State, one of the Departments, so arrayed in hostile opposition and defiance of each other, must yield.

While administering the Executive Department, I should consider myself recreant to the high duties imposed upon me by the Constitution, and so sacrificing the independence of the Executive, to yield one jot to such a high handed usurpation of judicial power, and as the Governor of the State I shall never acquiesce or submit to it. This leaves me but one alternative. Although I believe myself to have been fairly and duly elected as Governor and have no knowledge or suspicion of any frauds in the returns or canvass of the vote by which this result has been ascertained and declared by the State canvassers, I have no ambition or desire to hold and exercise the Executive Department for any personal honor or emoluments which it can confer.

Every citizen of this State has with me an equal interest in the preservation of the Government in its integrity, and in the public peace and welfare. The known political and personal hostility of a majority of the members of the Senate will operate to divert from me as the Governor, the necessary means to bear the public burthens and meet the necessary expense of conducting this conflict to a final issue and result, so that I could be compelled to rely upon my own personal resources to meet a crisis which threatens to be turbulent, belligerent and continued.

In this alarming and perilous emergency of the State Government, the public demands a sacrifice to save the State from the calamity of civil strife and to preserve the public peace.

I have no doubt whatever that the people would eventually sustain me in the independent discharge of the duties of the Executive Department against this extra judicial proceeding, but I have no disposition to call them to the support of my personal claims to that official station, to hazard in so doing, their own peace and the public tranquility. Feeling well assured that from the people of the State, I have constitutionally and legally received the Executive authority of the Government, in the present dangerous attitude of the case, I shall return to them the power they have so conferred upon me and in so doing shall seek the best good of the State and consult my own personal convenience and interests.

I am positive that when the political feeling and excitement with which this proceeding has been invested, and I cannot but believe by which it has also been instigated and influenced, shall have left the public mind free to an impartial and candid investigation, I shall be fully vindicated both as to the law and the facts. And I shall adopt the means, at some early day, to place the whole case before the people in its true bearings and position and await their judgment with full confidence.

With these views and influenced by these considerations, I herewith tender to the Legislature my resignation as Governor.

WM. A. BARSTOW.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, EXECUTIVE DEP'T
Madison, March 21, 1856.

To the Legislature:—As the Governor of the State of Wisconsin, I hereby resign to you the Executive Department.

WM. A. BARSTOW.

WILD WILLIE.—This strange and unfortunate girl has been taken in charge by a lady of this city, whose deeds of charity are recorded in many hearts and homes, and every effort that true kindness can suggest will be made to restore her to a calm and quiet life. The violence of her last freak of frenzy was greatly increased by the inhalation of some "laughing gas," which she secretly obtained at a drug store.—Chicago Press, 21st.

WISCONSIN STOCKS AND BONDS.—We notice sales in Wall Street, on Monday last, of 150 shares M. & M. R. R. at 84a84½, and 25 Lake Shore at 73a73½. At auction $5000 La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. 1st mortgages 8 per cent, bonds sold at 63.

BANK.—A new Bank is about being started in Buffalo, with a capital of $250,000, devoted to the interests of manufacters and traders.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

CONFIRMATION.—The Rt. Rev. Bishop KEMPER, administered the rite of confirmation to nine persons, at St. Pauls Church, last evening. The ceremony was interesting and very impressive. The voice of the venerable Bishop, as he pronounced the blessing upon each one, had, a sweetly-solemn expression.—May his years still be prolonged, that his presence may continue to be felt in the good cause in which he has so long and so faithfully labored.

FASTING AND PRAYER.—The Board of Bishops of the M. E. Church, designated yesterday as a day of fasting prayer, throughout that Church. The day was observed in this city by the members of the M. E. communion.

DEATH OF DR. BOND.—Our Methodist friends, says the Chicago Press, will be pained to learn of the death of Dr. Thomas E. Bond of New York, for many years editor of the Christian Advocate and Journal, the leading paper of that denomination. Dr. Bond was a man of great learning and ability, and he will be long missed by the church to whose interests so many years of his life were devoted.—His demise took place in New York city, on the 14th inst., in the seventy-fifth year of his age.

—The Governor of New Zealand states that 90 of every hundred of the natives of that Island now profess Christianity.

THE PASSION FLOWER.—After the crucifixion of our Savior, the sorrowful Disciples walked slowly up Mt. Carmel, where they spent the night in prayer. Morning came, and the birds sang as sweetly among the cedar leaves, as if they had not flown thither in terror from the thundering and quaking earth and rending rocks of yesterday. When the Disciples arose from their knees, they saw strangely beautiful flowers, unlike all others; for on them was pictured the crucifixion, the cross, the Roman spear, the thorny crown, the knotted scourge, the heavy hammer and the sharpened nails, and themselves like Sentinels.—Had the upturned earth furnished the vegetable world with materials, and wrought so perfectly Christ's Passion and Crucifixion on a flower in a single night?

What wonder, then, if the Disciples with tears, christened this beautiful flower, "PASSION." This event occurred eighteen hundred and twenty three years ago, this morning.

DECLINE OF MORMONISM.—The Taunton (England) Courier states that the Mormon delusion in that neighborhood—where for the last twelve months a couple of elders have been propogating their "Latter Day" doctrines is fast dying out, and that the hall in which they have held their meetings is now let to a glass and China dealer—articles not quite so brittle even as the Mormon creed.

METHODISTS IN TEXAS.—At the close of the two conference years preceding the one just closed, the report of the Methodist memberships in Texas gave not far from twenty thousand—over eight thousand in the Western conference, and over eleven thousand in the Eastern. At the recent sessions, the West reported an increase of about three thousand five hundred, making, in that conference, near twelve thousand; while the East reported over three thousand, making, in that conference over fourteen thousand; so that the entire membership in Texas is not far from twenty a rapidity of increase far exceeding that of any other denomination of Christians in that State.

AUSTRIAN LUTHERANS.—The severe persecution with the Protestants in Austria have endured since the reign of Francis Joseph has driven a considerable number of Lutherans to this country, and settlements have recently been made in various parts of Missouri, where churches have been constituted, supplied by ministers of the Missouri Synod. Another colony has also been made in Union County Ill.

CONSTANCY IN THE PASTORAL OFFICE.—The Rev. Dr. Marselus, during the past thirty six years of which he has been the Pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church corner of Bleecker and Amos streets, New York, has administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to his people 136 times, and on each occasion he officiated himself, except once when he was prevented by sickness. At a recent communion service celebrated by him, only one of the large number of the communicants of the Church at the time of Dr. Marselus's settlement, was present.

WALDENSIAN CHURCH TROUBLES IN SARDINIA.—In 1851 the Synod gave to a committee the charge of preparing a plan of a constitution for the Waldensian Church. This plan was laid before the next Synod, which convened in 1854, and did not at that time come under discussion, but was accepted at a subsequent assembly called together for the express purpose of considering it. It was then communicated to the various Waldensian congregations for acceptance, and being adopted, was published as the ultimate law of the Church.—But disagreement shortly appeared, and a secession of a portion of the congregations, of Genoa and Turin has taken place. The Seceders have united to form free congregations, and have declared themselves to belong to the Evangelical Church of Italy. They however, still maintain friendly relations to the Waldensian State church.

CHURCH AND STATE.—The Natchitoches (La.) Chronicle contains a letter from the Catholic Bishop at that place, in which he says that the Roman Catholic Church does not teach or hold that the Pope has any temporal authority or supremacy whatever out of his own estates and even with this temporal authority of the Pope in his estates the Catholic Church has nothing to do. They were vested in him; from him they may be wrested; his supremacy in either case, stands the same, because it is purely of a spiritual character. In what regards doctrine and discipline, on him, to some extent, (says the Bishop,) we depend as supreme pastor and first bishop; but in that alone. In civil matters we owe, and the Church requires, strict and faithful obedience to the laws of the country, unless they be at variance with what we owe to our God and Maker.

☞ The Muscatine (Iowa) Journal, one of the few papers in Iowa that hoisted the Fillmore flag, has changed hands and puts up the Republican Ticket at the head of its columns.

I DIDN'T KNOW WHAT IT MEANT.

He gave me a knife one day at school,
Four-bladed—the handle of pearl,
And great black words on the wrapper said,
"For the darlingest little girl!"
I was glad! oh, yes, yet the crimson blood
To my young cheeks came and went,
And my heart thumped wondrously pit-a-pat,
But I didn't know what it meant!

One night he said I must jump on his sled,
For the snow was falling fast;
I was half afraid, but he coaxed and coaxed,
And he got me on at last.
Laughing and chatting in merry glee,
To my home his course he bent,
And my sisters looked at each other and smiled,
But I didn't know what it meant!

The years passed on, and they touched his eye
With a shadow of deeper blue;
They gave to his form a manlier grace,
To his cheek a swarthier hue.
We stood by the dreamily rippling brook,
When the day was almost spent;
His whispers were soft as the lullaby—
And——now I know what it meant!

HUMOROUS, &c.

A GAME DINNER.—Judge S——, of the Northern District of Pennsylvania, is universally known as the most indefatigable sportsman in the State. The Judge is an epicure in his way, and his way is peculiar. He hangs up all his game killed for three or four days—after the English manner—till it becomes putrid; at least, till the feathers come out easy, and the flesh is quite tender.

He had invited Esquire W—— to dinner and savory dishes of prairie chickens, killed a week before, and ever since hung in the warm kitchen, were placed before him. The guest, however, little relished the "rich" morsels which his host provided, and tasted sparingly. The Judge noticed the abstemiousness of his guest, and endeavored to obviate it by placing the choicest morsels before him. He cut a fine largeslice from the breast of a prairie chicken, and handed it to him, saying, "There, 'squire, I guess you will like that; it's a good piece."

"Yes," said W——, "it's a good piece, but how like thunder it smells!"

"Well, well!" growled the old Judge, "a man comes to the table to eat his victuals, not to smell of 'em!"

MR THOMPSON, Proprietor of the "Atlanta House," Atlanta, Ga., is well known as a votary of eccentricities. We were highly amused the other day at the recital of the following exchange of civilities between the Doctor and a traveler, who called at the office to "settle his bill," when the Doctor happened to be behind the counter:

"What do you charge?" asked the traveler.

"Well,' replied the Doctor, humorously, "if we charge your bill, it will be a dollar, but cash down, only fifty cents."

"You may charge it then," said the fellow, coolly turning on his heel, and passing out, took his seat in the cars.

The Doctor, half amused, half angry, followed, and confronting the stranger, asked if he did not intend to pay the bill.

"Certainly not—I told you to charge it," was the bland reply.

The Doctor was non-plussed; but, placing his fore finger thoughtfully for a moment beside his nose—"Stranger," said he, "when you come this way again, bring your box and stay a week."

A MAN OF COURAGE.—Captain Barnabus Wilkins was as great a blusterer as Boabdil!—He was very quarrelsome, but he could never be made to answer for his insolence. One time a comrade, whom he had offended, ordered him to choose his weapon—"the sword or pistol at thirty paces."

"Very well," said Captain Barnabus, "I'll choose the sword at thirty paces."

Once he was brought upon the duel ground!

"Surrender!" he called out to his antagonist, in tones of thunder, though he shook like a leaf.

"Never!" retorted his enemy.

"Then I'll be more generous," said Captain Barnabus; "I'll surrender myself!"

RATHER A HARD THING TO CAST.—"Do you cast things here?" inquired a Yankee the other day, as he sauntered into an iron foundry and addressed the proprietor.

"We do."

"You cast all kinds of things in iron, eh?"—was the next query.

"Certainly—don't you see—that is our business?"

"Ah, well, cast a shadow, will you?"

He was cast out and referred to a brass foundry.

PROOF OF AFFECTION.—Well, Tom, does your girl continue to love you?"

"Yes, more than ever."

"Indeed! what evidence have you of that?"

"Why, she makes me presents."

"What has she given you?"

"Oh, she has made me a present of my picture, which I paid five dollars for before I gave it to her."

"Ah! she gave you a mitten, too, didn't she?"

THE Lynn News tells a good story of two boys, one of whom was boasting of the beauties of his father's house. "It's got a cupola," said he "and it's going to have something else."

"What is it?" asked his interested companion

"Why, I heard father tell mother, this morning, that it's going to have a mortgage on it!"

FOR BETTER AND FOR WORSE.—A philosopher who had married a vulgar but amiable girl, used to call his wife "Brown Sugar," because, he said, she was sweet but unrefined.—Another, whose wife was affectionate and stout, was accustomed to denominate her "Lump Sugar."—Punch.

A LADY of fashion inscribed on a pane of glass at an inn at Staines, "Dear Lord D. has the softest lips of any man in England." Foote, coming into the room soon after, wrote underneath:

"Then no near as two chips,
Are his head and his lips."

CHILDREN are singularly inquisitive; for instance:

"What does cleave mean, papa?"

"It means to unite together."

"Does John unite wood when he cleaves it?"

"Hem! Well, don't ask so many foolish questions, child!"

"PA," simpered a boarding-school creation, "are you going to have a coat of arms painted on the pannels of our new carriage?"

"Yes, a saw and saw-buck, for with them I earned my first money."

THERE is a dandy in Chicago of such nice tastes, that he greases his boots with the oil of bergamot. He is first cousin to the youth who sleeps on a bed of sponge cake.

RICHTER says:—"No man can either live piously or die righteously without a wife!" A very wicked bachelor of our acquaintance says to this, "O, yes! sufferings and severe trials purify and chasten the heart."

ARRIVAL OF THE QUAKER CITY.—The Quaker City, from Liverpool, arrived at New York on the 21st inst., with European dates to the 15th. She encountered heavy westerly gales and snow squalls on her passage.

MEXICAN INDEMNITY DEBT.—The last installment of this debt—$150,000—was paid out of the Sub-Treasury, to Messrs. Howland and Aspinwall, yesterday.

☞ The Indians are again committing depredations in Texas. A company had been organized to pursue them into Mexico and chastise them.

SEASONED LUMBER.—It will be seen by an advertisement, in another column, that Ludington & Co. have seasoned lumber for sale.

☞ The Democratic City Convention, on Saturday next, is to be held at the Court House, and not at Market Hall, as was stated yesterday.

SUIT COMMENCED.—The Madison Argus of last evening says:

"The Secretary of State has notified the Attorney General of the default of Ex-Treasurer Janssen, and directed proceedings to be commenced for the amount of defalcation."

Great Fire at Waukesha---Loss from $20,000 to $30,000.

A fire broke out in the village of Waukesha, this morning, between 1 and 2 o'clock, on Main Street, and before it could be subdued some 11 or 12 buildings were consumed, all on the South side of Main St. The following are the buildings burnt, as near as we can learn:

C. Jackson's drug store; law offices of Alexander Cook and others; Dunbar's grocery; C. Alexander's harness shop; a tailor shop; Spence & Co.'s boot and shoe store and grocery; Cross' daguerrean gallery; Angrave's meat market; Gallagher's boot and shoe shop; Jones' grocery; Plaindealer office; tin shop in rear of Burrough's hardware store; Mrs. Marsh's millinery shop.

We have no further particulars in regard to the fire. It is not known how it broke out — The loss is estimated at from $20,000 to $30,000, being the largest fire that has ever occurred in the village. The loss is a heavy one for the place to sustain.

—The editor of the New Haven Register has been shown a hen's egg measuring 9¼ inches in circumference, by 5 inches in diameter.—Exchange.

Our devil thinks that must have been a queer shaped egg—a Shanghai, a little "mixed," probably.

BRIDGES.—A new bridge is to be erected, the coming season, to Iris Island, Niagara Falls, on the site of the oldone. It is to be a costly and tasteful structure.

—The Alta California issues a daily edition of 3,500; the Chronicle 4,130; and the Herald 2,640.

UNPAID LETTERS.—Unpaid letters were deposited in the Chicago Post Office, on the 13th inst., for the following persons in this State:—John Z. A. Rollins, Stevens Pt., Wis.; Mrs. Joseph Wakeman, Burlington, Wis.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR KŒRNER.—The Anti-Slavery papers of Senator Trumbull's district, (Ill.) have generally run up the name of Lieut. Governor Kœrner for Congress, to fill the vacancy in that district.

☞ Sixteen new counties have been formed in Texas during the present session of the Legislature.

THE UTTER FAILURE OF MR. BARNUM.—At a recent examination in the Supreme Court of New York, Mr. Barnum stated that in June last he had property in his hands of the value of $300,000, against which there were liabilities of $300,000—leaving him worth $500,000. His surety for the Jerome Clock Company was originally only $100,000, but having given them his name in blank for the purpose of renewing notes, he found to his astonishment and dismay that he was in for $464,000, for which he had not received the equivalent of a cent. He thinks now that with proper management of his property he would be able to pay all his liabilities and still have $400,000, but if it is disposed of at a forced sale, he will be left with worse than nothing.

During the examination of Mr. Barnum, he stated that his entire wealth consisted in a gold watch, a diamond pin, and a few obligations in his favor, by him considered worthless. He further stated to the Court, that he supports himself by keeping a boarding house on Eighth street, the provisions being furnished by his son-in-law, and the vegetables contributed by friends in Connecticut. He likewise remarked that he had but two suits of clothes and $25 in cash in his possession. How are the mighty fallen!

☞ Milwaukee has won honor. Her demonstration for Kansas, was worthy of the West and of Freedom. Eitgheen hundred Dollars were raised, and backed by a spirit which will ring like a bugle blast over the Mississippi.

Janesville too, is in a blaze. A large and spirited meeting has been held, and measures taken to render prompt and efficient aid to the settlers.

So the fire kindles and sweeps along the North. The blood of the butchered Brown, like the red cross of Rhoderic Dhu, is born over the land and everywhere awakes the clansmen to the rescue. Slavery will only win Kansas at a bloody cost.—Jefferson Co. Republican.

☞ The great saw-mill, known as the Willow Creek Mill, on the edge of McKean County Pennsylvania, was destroyed by fire on the 8th inst., together with about 30,000 feet of boards. The property was reputed to have cost the sum of $100,000.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Harper's Magazine for April, has just been laid on our table by Archibald Wilson. It abounds in good things. Its illustrated biographical sketch of Gen. Israel Putnam possesses unusual interest. The Resurrection Flower; A Home in the Cinnamon Isle, and three chapters of Dicken's Little Dorrit, together with a pleasing variety of miscellany, make up as interesting a number as we have often seen.

Harper's Story Books, No. 17—Elfred, has just arrived. These delightful books for the young, are written by Jacob Abbott, in his most charming style. Those who have not taken this magazine, cannot imagine how much they are losing. All the children should have it. It is filled with interesting pictures illustrative of the narrative. For sale at Wilson's.

Life in Brazil, A Journal of a visit to the land of the Cocoa and the Palm, by Thomas Ewbank. The book contains many illustrations of Ancient South American Arts, in recently discovered implements and products of domestic industry, and works in stone, pottery, gold, silver, bronze, &c., with over one hundred illustrations. Here we have many vivid discriptions of eclesiastical pagents, which constitute a cherished source of Brazilian entertainments. The business of a city is ever and anon arrested, its streets swept and strewed with leaves, the fronts of the houses docked with evergreen and drapery, women and children throng the windows, country people flock to the sight, and groups of both sexes are every where waiting for it. At length appear full sized statues painted to the life, mounted on platforms, and borne in triumph on men's shoulders, amid crowds of officials in their varied costumes. Mitred pontiffs, with their trains held up by pages, walk under canopies, accompanied by civil magistrates, and escorted by battallions of soldiers, the whole preceded and followed by cohorts of priests, monks, lay-brothers, and acolytes, with music, banners, flambeaux, staves, censors, symbols on poles, &c., while from the mixed, masses of spectators proceed sotto voce remarks, reverend and profane, as each wooden deity and its perspiring supporters pass by.

Besides church affairs, the author has noted whatever has interested him, and has written a very readable and instructive book. For sale by Wilson.

Prison Life and Reflections, of Work Burr and Thompson, who suffered an unjust and cruel imprisonment, in the Missouri Penitentiary, for attempting to aid some slaves to liberty. An earnest sympathy is awaken for the prisoners, by the perusal of this book, one of whom is now in our city. The book is for sale at Gen. Paine's Office, also at the Free Democrat Office.

Macaulay's History of England, the third and fourth volumes of which are just published.—This work has met with an unprecedented sale in America, and the very mention of it is a sufficient advertisement. For sale by A. Whittemore and Co. Published by Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, Mass.

The Northwestern Farmer, for March, has been on our table several days. As usual, it is filled with matter of much interest to all tillers of the soil. Every farmer in the State should take this monthly. Published by Powers & Skinner, Madison, at $1,00 per annum.

REPORTED FOR THE FREE DEMOCRAT.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

MADISON, March 22.

ASSEMBLY met at 10 o'clock. Speaker Hull in the Chair.

Immediately after prayer, Colonel Hunt, private Secretary of the Governor, announced a Message from Gov. McArthur, announcing that the office had devolved upon him, and that he should exercise it to the utmost of his power.

Mr. Huntington reported back the new Lunatic Asylum bill. Laid over.

Several bills, of no general interest, were then passed.

A bill to credit $500 to Mr. Janssen, late State Treasurer, passed.

House then went into committee of the whole—Mr. Walker in the Chair.

PHOTOGRAPHS, AMBROTYPES,
—AND—
DAGUERREOTYPES.
Crowds of Admirers Visit
FOWLER & HORN'S
GALLERY!
NO. 231½ East Water Street, Empire Block, to examine their beautiful and finished specimens of Photographs, Ambrotypes and Daguerreotypes.
Mr. Horn is a painter by profession, and invites public attention to his style of painting Photographs. These pictures EXCEL THE FINEST PAINTING UPON IVORY, and while they equal the works of the Masters in their delicacy and richness of coloring, far surpass them in exactness of delineation and PERFECT FIDELITY TO FEATURE, expression and nature.
Friends, relatives and lovers may now rejoice in the possession of perfect likenesses, at a price that places them in the reach of all. Our painted Photographs are warranted to be all that is here represented, and we guarantee them to preserve their color without fading, at least as long as paintings on ivory.
Particular attention also paid to Ambrotypes and Daguerreotypes, and ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS IN THE ART are applied by us as soon as introduced in the East. feb14

Great Cure After the Physicians Had Failed.
RUSSELVILLE, OHIO, Jan. 10, 1855.
DR. C. M. JACKSON—
DEAR SIR:—We would inform you that we are out of Hoofland's German Bitters, which meet with ready sale. One of our neighbors has been doctoring for some time, (we think about two years) with all the doctors in the country, but of no avail. He looked about as much like a dead man going about, as anything we can compare him to. His disease appeared to be an overflowing of the gall. With hard persuasion we prevailed on him to try your Bitters, with the promise to him if it did no good, we would charge him nothing for it, provided he took six bottles, according to the direction, and is now entirely cured, and has become a well man. This cure has created a great sale in this neighborhood. Respectfully,
EDWARDS & BROWN.

NEURALGIA CURED.
READ WHAT MR. BOYDEN SAYS:—
No medicine ever had certificates from such respectable sources as Carter's Spanish Mixture. Mr. F. Boyden, one of the original proprietors of the Astor House, New York, and for a number of years of the Exchange Hotel, Va., was cured of a severe attack of Neuralgia, by Carter's Spanish Mixture. The rapid and perfect cure effected in his case by this valuable medicine, arrested his attention and excited his interest; he recommended it to others afflicted with a variety of diseases, and in every instance a cure was effected. He has seen it cure Ague and Fever, Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Violent Coughs, and cases which were said to be confirmed Consumption, and nearly every other disease for which it is used. He remarks it is difficult to know what disease it will not relieve or cure, and as a Blood Purifier, and Spring and Fall medicine, he had never seen its equal. He cheerfully recommends it on all occasions, and believes it to be most valuable remedy extant.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE OPINION OF A LADY,
Who knows Mr. WEVER, and has bought Goods at WEVER'S
DRY GOODS PALACE ! !
—AND—
CARPET ROOMS !
158 East Water Street.

COME to the Palace, oh, come there with me,
Where Fashion, 'mid splendor, still holds her levee.
And somebody tell—you that Beauty is sold
To Youth or to Age, in exchange for gold;
And their Lady-like charms through life may prolong,
In robes like a Queen's, which still for a song.
They've Shawls for the taste, and Shawls for the storm,
They've Cloaks which fall softly, so rich, and so warm:
They've Carpets of Wilton, of Velvet, and Brussels;
They've Laces, and Bordderies, Ribbons, and Tassels;
They've so much—fined Goods, for the weeping and sad
They've suits like the sunshine, for merry and glad;
They've fabrics for millions and hold their levee
For those who pay tribute, or come but to see,
If Palace of Dry Goods, so wondrous grand,
Can be nought but a palace, of old Fairyland;
But those who know WEVER, can't doubt for a minute
This glorious Palace, and all that is in it
Yours, C. H. G.

Now I blush, indeed I do, What modest, married man would not? Yet I console myself with the idea that Beauty always pays tribute to Worth and Merit. Thanking sincerely yet humbly my fair contributor, I trust that by honesty, uprightness and my gentlemanly bearing, I may ever command her respect.

THE OLD EAGLE GOING IT WITH A RUSH
The Eagle
STEAM FOUNDRY
OF
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street
IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing Machine or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of—horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competition in any department.

In regard to the character of the work get up by this, The Oldest Establishment in the State, the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation thro' the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Gauge and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Cups & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Gauges, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."
